Celebration of International Women's Day

On the first day of this camp, 9th March 2026, Monday, the programme started at 10 am to commemorate International Women's Day. Dr Saika Hossain, Associate Professor of History, Maulana Azad College, was the invited speaker on this occasion.

After the felicitation of the speaker, the seminar session began with the Principal's keynote address on women's rights, their long struggle to achieve empowerment and the long way yet to reach the goal. Dr Saika Hossain, in her lecture, gave a vivid picture of the Muslim women who achieved higher education, held respectable positions, inspired and helped other Muslim women to stand independently.

Dr. Saika Hossain is delivering her talk

Dr. Sampa Sen, Associate Professor of Bengali, spoke on the crime and violence against women, which she ended with a poem written by her on related victims. Dr. Nandini Jana, Associate Professor of History, presented a brief overview of the relentless struggle and movements by women from the 19th century to the present day. Dr. Anannya Chatterjee, Assistant Professor of Sociology, expressed her views on the mission of this year's International Women's Day 2026-“GIVE TO GAIN”. Librarian Smt. Rita Sen Chowdhury expressed her views on the women from poor, backward, rural areas who cannot access the policies that are actually taken from them. Smt. Rupa Banerjee Samajpati explained the biological features of women and how they create a new life during childbirth. So, basic hygiene, nutrition, and care must be taken for every girl child.

Poster Presentation Competition

Students also shared their thoughts through articles and posters, which were judged by the Principal and other faculty members of the college. Topics of the poster competition were:

1. Women in unusual professions
2. Contribution of home makers in our society
3. Success stories of women in India

Poster Session

Distribution of Sanitary Napkins

The programme of the first day ended with the distribution of Sanitary Napkins among the women of the locality.
