Resolutions of Grievance Cell meeting

dated 12th December, 2023

Grievance 1: Grievance was received from the teachers regarding the students' reluctance to participate in seminars and cultural competitions.

Resolution 1: All the faculty members are asked to encourage the students to make them understandable that development of a student's personality can be achieved by attending seminars, workshops and webinars. Besides, for a healthy life-study balance, participations in cultural activities are also important.

Grievance 2: Grievance was received from the students about non-having enough books in the library for the newly introduced OCT course.

Resolution 2: Lists of such books are to be asked from the students. All departments are instructed to purchase those books in the coming session.

Teachers are also requested to provide study materials to the students from their own reserves before the new purchase is made.
